RACIAL BIGOTRY OF THE NORTH AMERICAN BLACK NATION

Black nations of America have for nearly 100 years, constantly, often violently, reminded the rest of us about their enslavement centuries ago that our ancestors in all likelihood had absolutely nothing to with at all. Moreover, American black nations, try examining your US ancestral heritage before persecuting the rest of us about what you misperceive about ours. One must remember a number of things. Black slavery was imported into America as commodity labor, along with many other mixed races of indentured servants or slaves already born into and yoked under such burden. Blacks were neither the original slaves nor the only forced labor servants used by this country's rich and politically powerful facets - contrary to the disingenuous, militant beliefs that some of you promote. Furthermore, black slavery originated in a far away land almost 5 thousand years before ever being imported to the Americas, and hundreds of years after Columbus landed to first subjugate indigenous Indian tribes into bondage. We did not make obedient slaves. Therefore, black workforces arrived to this continent long after our race was deemed as 'useless eaters,' and was undergoing the bloodiest, longest, ethnic cleansing and genocide known to humanity, which slaughtering original nation tribes and the buffalo to brink of extinction. What is more, slavery was and remains a luxury of the rich and politically powerful! Only the very wealthiest Socialist, Communist, corporations, police states & monarchy's, powerful religions and other such empires can afford to manage public and/or indentured servants. That means more than 99% of Americans could not afford and did not own forced labor or plantation servants. In fact, most common Americans were in some way either already indentured to the rich & powerful and/or outright owned as slaves by them by the time black imports arrived. Myriad, sundry forms of slavery exist, BTW. And, the perfect slave always says, 'I am not a slave.' I will let that sink in a moment. 'Black Lives Matter' and all the past and recent brouhaha by American blacks have been against people and their ancestors who had absolutely nothing to do with your USA slave history. In fact, many of those innocent ancestors lost everything including their lives fighting to free black slaves, among others, from their injustice!!! But all one hears from the black movement, under very questionable motive, is an ad hoc protest about the sins of only a very, very slim minority of American ancestors scapegoated onto everyone else who had nothing to do with it.

Slavery was imported to America. Native American indigenous people were the first slaves not blacks! Moreover many other races served as enchained labor long before you folks ever made the slave trade hit parade. Why is it black protests never mention that inconvenient truth about bonded servitude in America? During the black slave era, knowing very well what it is to lose ones humanity to forced enchainment; original nations were sympathetic to any runaway slave's plight. As part of the Underground Railroad, we opened our arms, villages, and families, sharing everything we had with escaping black slaves by accepting them as our brothers and sisters providing to them food, shelter, safety and more. We ran great risk in doing so while facing genocidal extinction and wholesale slaughter of our tribes by encroaching colonists stealing resources and tribal lands. Many black runaways endearing our way of life, chose to remain and intermarry with us to become our blood-brothers and blood-sisters. Which means that we shared and still share common bloodlines. America's first nation people gave you grace in your most desperate hour while also facing our annihilation. Nothing records a life more accurately, and in detail, than the human mind and body. After black emancipation, I recall stories told by my ancestors about the 'black-faced' soldier's that wore the 'white-face's' clothes and used their weapons to butcher the buffalo and our people: US Army Negro or *Buffalo Soldiers. Sometimes they rode with the horse soldiers. At other-times they rode alone only as Buffalo Soldier regiments. They were savage like the 'white-faces' who called us animals. The 'black-faced' warriors after slaughtering an entire village, would rape, loot and murder surviving, the wounded, unarmed old men, women and children. Then Buffalo Soldiers desecrated the bodies, feeding infants, children and the unborn cut from their mother's lifeless wombs to the Army hounds; there are documented reports of cannibalism, scalping for bounty, cutting sexual organs off our dead women as souvenirs, they stole clothing & sacred tokens, blankets, skins and hides, anything of perceived value before leaving what remained of a burned and pillaged village for scavengers, insects and to rot on open ground. I will let THAT sink in for a moment. And you called us savages. In your tribe's time of need, indigenous American Indian Nations gave you sanctuary, fed and took you in as our brothers and sisters. For that grace you repaid us in bloodshed and tears just like the 'white-faced' demons you claim to oppose. I do not know of a single instance of such magnitude in US black history of any such atrocities against people of your nation while living on American soil! Adding more insult, information hiding America's reprehensible shame, which includes the black nations as well, finally comes out after centuries of US censorship for all of mainstream America to know. In denial, a weak, hypocritical America looks the other way. The world has recognized America's atrocities long censored in USA that came from archives in Europe and elsewhere gathered and stored by immigrant families, their newspapers, books, magazines and similar historical media still surviving today. Seems the only people who did not know the truth behind America's pompous ass boasts of being 'the good guys wearing white hats' were the Americans. Hitler & his Nazis, Stalin, Mao and Pol Pot all studied America's final Indian solution before refining our criminal methods to a fault during Germany's WW2 holocaust & Jewish final solution and thereafter in Socialist Russia, Communist China, Vietnam - ad nauseam. America's longest most brutal and bloodthirsty genocide in human history was the role model for other countries pursing ethnic cleansing of undesirable, useless eaters from their lands. Gross inhumane crimes against humanity that US government and mass media constantly harp about while pointing a bony finger at their dirty laundry as a distraction hiding the filthiest of it all made in and exported by USA. Such documented information exists hidden away in status quo US to keep the lie of this country's phony 'sterling' image untarnished to their young, who grow up unable to handle reality living outside of a 'Matrix' fantasy 'Meme Park' as it were. Again, nothing records a life more accurately and in detail than the human mind and body. Much that I personally know came from stories handed down by my surviving ancestors which exist unwritten in back pages of human darkness that died with them while living on through descendants like me. We do not cheat and condemn our children as do those living in the proverbial 'Matrix' to a life of lies. We know that knowledge of the truth frees them: 'The Free' drives our sons and daughters; our son's and daughter's drive 'The Free.'

To the black nation's representatives, currently looting, rioting and burning down America, I beseech you to stop and look at your pretense. To see that you destroy only you! Black American's, after their emancipation, were an active part of the longest, bloodiest, brutal racial genocide known to humanity. The worst racial mass murders were not in Socialist Nazi Germany, Communist China & Vietnam or Socialist Russia! Socialist Nazi Germany Jewish holocaust 12-20 million murdered; Stalin's Socialist, Russian purges 80 million murdered; communist China 60 million & Vietnam Pol Pot massacre and killing fields 7-12 million murdered --- The worst ethnic genocide in sheer numbers alone was right here on American soil, and black American's - after their liberation - joined with oppressors and participated in that bloodshed!!! America 180-220 million innocent men, women and babies slaughtered during the longest, bloodiest ethnic cleansing in human history. Our race was reduced by over 98%, which means only less than 2% separated our race from total extinction off the face of this planet. Mass obliteration of a human taxon by other humans, which clearly shows what this lowest of animal is capable of doing to its kind. Consequently, Black Nation participation, after you gained freedom, in that bloodletting is your American inheritance. Furthermore, taken as a whole, you have suffered nothing in contrast to what original nations have undergone and still do confined in US concentration camps aka Indian Reservations, where living conditions remain far below the lowest ethnic ghetto in USA. I strongly suggest that you carefully look at the three bony fingers of judgment that have for centuries been pointing at you before raising a single digit towards the rest of us. Remove the three planks from your eyes for a clearer perspective concerning the speck that you perceive exists in the eyes of your condemned scapegoats. Try examining your ancestral sins of genocidal annihilation of the American Indian 'red skinned' races before accusing the rest of us of that evil residing in you. Which means dropping the hand of judgment and looking into the mirror first at you before projecting your self-hate, self-pity and anger at what you perceive from the mirror of others that reflects you in Toto. Put another way, you inherited the crimes of your ancestors and cannot argue that wickedness in Toto. Attacking society and my heritage, when you persecute me you disrespect my ancestors, for perceived crimes of which we are not guilty, in fact just the opposite. Airing peccadilloes over a century old, blaming people who were neither alive nor had anything to do with what our ancestors might have done, simply implicates your crimes more than ever! My point to the black nation people, most especially to the racist, bigoted, misandrist, VA employees that disgraced my ancestral heritage - before damning the person or people with only a speck in the eye, try removing the three planks from your willfully blinded vision to better see the big picture. In doing so, you will also notice behind the single bony finger that you point at us, are three judging you. I do not write this in anger, bitterness or hatred; to do so is stooping to your level of unconsciousness. However, I do express sympathetic-pity because you are conditioned and brainwashed into willful blindness, while enchained by learned ignorance and helplessness by the very people you claim to oppose who own you: the perfect slave always says, "I am not a slave." I would think in regaining your ancestral humanity lost for thousands of years, that the black nation would be more aware of its actions to understand the horrors of ethnic ill-treatment, and would have learned not to repeat the sin. Evidently, in those millennia, many of you still have not understood a thing.
